DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. After further consideration, the examiner have discovered that there remain further patentable distinct groups and have issued a new restriction below. Therefore, the previous restriction in the office action mailed January 12, 2005 is hereby vacated. The examiner apologizes for any inconvenience that this may cause.

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-4, 12-14 and 23-24, drawn to method and kit for assaying one or more target analytes, classified in class 422, subclass 61.
 - II. Claims 5-13 and 23-24, drawn to a method and kit for assaying one or more target analytes in a sample comprising a ligand bound to a support with bound interfering molecules that sterically hinder the binding ligand to target analyte, classified in class 436, subclass 537.
 - III. Claims 15-22 are drawn to a composition, classified in class 435, subclass 4.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are patentably distinct methods. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation. Group I additionally calls for steric interference of a support wherein the binding ligand is within the pores of a porous support, which causes steric interference when the analyte is in contact with the ligand. Group II calls for the binding ligand to be bound to a support wherein the support comprises bound interfering molecules that cause chemical interference when the ligand is in contact with the analyte.

3. Inventions (I & III) and (II & III) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product claimed can be used for a different method such as the production of anti-idiotypic antibodies against the composition.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Please note that classifications in the restriction are illustrative only and do not represent all the classes and subclasses which must be searched for each invention; nor is the search limited to issued US patents, but rather includes foreign patents and applications as well as literature searches, therefore restriction for examination purposes as indicated proper.

5. A telephone call was made to Jeffrey I. Auerbach on April 19, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Deborah A Davis whose telephone number is (571) 272-0818. The examiner can normally be reached on 8-5 Monday thru Friday.
